

Barcelona, 9th march 2007 - Highgrowth Partners has disinvested its DIMAT stake held by FONSIINNOCAT

Highgrowth Partners the managing company of the venture capital FonsInnocat has disinvest in DIMAT after three years of having a share of 32,65%.

DIMAT, specialized company in the design and manufacture of communication solutions, remote-protection and connections for electric companies, becomes controlled through this operation by ZIV GROUP, main shareholder of the company, executing the call option on FonsInnocat shares.

The IRR obtained by FonsInnocat it's higher than 15%.

Highgrowth Partners, S.G.E.C.R is the managing company of the venture capital fund FonsInnocat whose investors are Institut Català de Finances Holding, European Investment Fund, EDF, Mútua de Propietarios and Mútua de Ingenieros. The Fund endowment is 20 million Euros and it targets SMEs located in Catalonia which plan to develop an innovative project in start-up or expansion phase. Since its inception in May 2002 until now, the Fund has invested in 15 firms, having disinvested from 3 of them, with a pooled IRR of 37%.

ZiV Group is a company founded in July 1993 and his activity is based in the design, manufacturing and commercialisation of digital equipments/systems in the fields of protection, control, measure, engineering, services and communications of electric power generation, transport and distribution systems.